I complete my reflections before the deadlines.

|  |  |  |
|--|--|--|
| Rarely - Most of my submission have been late, but some of them have been on time. | Sometimes - I may have had a late submission or two. | Always - I've never had a late submission. |
|--|--|--|

I complete reflection corrections when needed.

|  |   |                                  |
|--|---|----------------------------------|
| Rarely - I know I need to make corrections to my work but I don't do it.OR: I never do corrections because my first submission is always an A! | Sometimes - I do them every now and then when needed, but sometimes I don't do them even though I should. | Always - I'm going for the gold! |
|--|---|----------------------------------|

I look at my handouts and reading when completing my reflections.

|  |  |   |
|--|--|---|
| Rarely - I don't look at my handouts and/or reading.OR: I never look at my materials because, somehow, I've memorized everything in class. | Sometimes - I don't always but I should look at them more to ensure my answers are correct.OR: I only look at them when I'm not sure of an answer. I don't need to look up everything. | Always - I like to make sure my answers are correct before I submit them by checking them against my handouts and/or reading. |
|--|--|---|

My handouts are completed with quality and detail. They rival Mr. Ower's copy.

|  |   |  |
|--|---|--|
| Rarely - I know I need to improve my work. I should focus on including more detail, revising my work when we discuss it in class, etc. | Sometimes - I've got my moments where my work is amazing. However, I know there are sheets where I could improve my detail or observations. | Always - My work is always detailed. I write in full sentences, includes detailed observations, and take my time completing my sheets. |
